

Revoked License Offender's Lecture

This lecture is for those whose driver's license has been revoked and want to qualify for the examination again.

You will not be qualified to take the examination for your new driver's license without attending the Revoked License Offender's Lecture if:

- * Your driver's license has been revoked, or
- * Issuance of your driver's license has been refused, or
- * You have been prohibited to drive for more than six (6) months because of a traffic offense you committed while driving with your International Driving Permit.

People applying under any of the above conditions, and whose driver's license has been revoked for drinking and driving or driving while intoxicated can attend the "Class for Alcohol-related Traffic Offenders" (See below).

A Certificate of Attendance for the Revoked License Offender's Lecture will be issued after you attend the lecture and it will be valid for one (1) year.

While the Revoked License Offender's Lecture is provided at the Driver's License Testing and Issuing Center, or at a designated driving school (there are fifteen (15) designated driving schools in Kanagawa Prefecture – see the table below), the "Class for Alcohol-related Traffic Offenders" is provided only at the Driver's License Testing and Issuing Center.

Applying for the Revoked License Offender's Lecture

The lecture is provided at the Driver's License Testing and Issuing Center or at one of the fifteen (15) designated driving schools shown in the table below. You will need to make a reservation for the lecture by calling 045-364-1110. About the “Class for Alcohol-related Traffic Offenders”

Those whose driver’s license has been revoked for drinking and driving or driving while intoxicated can attend the Revoked License Offender’s Lecture at the Class for Alcohol-related Traffic Offenders.

After attending the first day lecture, you must attend the second day lecture no sooner than thirty (30) days after the first day lecture. The attendance certificate is valid for one (1) year and will be issued to people who complete the lectures. They are now qualified to take the driver’s license examination. The validity of this lecture is the same as that of the Revoked License Offender’s Lecture.

NOTE

- * If you absent from the lecture on your designated day without notice, you must make a new appointment.
- * You should not attend the lecture intoxicated.
- * You may be requested to change your schedule if the number of applicants exceeds our capacity.
- * Depending on the number of applicants, your first lecture day may be rescheduled on a day two (2) or three (3) weeks after your application is processed. Please arrange your schedule accordingly.
- * Depending on your past offense records or period of punishment, you may not be qualified for the lecture at a driving school. Please check if you are qualified or not when you make an appointment.
